To Whom it May Concern,

Ever since I was a young child I've wanted to work in a bookstore. In fact, my uncle worked at Barnes and Noble for seven years. Every weekend my parents would drop me off at the bookstore and I would spend the whole day reading and leafing through every book I could get my hands on. Barnes and Noble has always been a source of fond memories and happy nostalgia, and I would love to continue supporting literature through work as a bookseller. That is why I am enclosing my application for the Boston Barnes and Noble.

I believe my love of literature, along with my organizational ability and experience with database management will make me an ideal candidate for this job.

Thank you for your consideration. The best way to contact me is through my personal email, gus.cantieni@gmail.com. Please don't hesitate to reach out.

Sincerely,

Gus Cantieni
